

7th April – 7th May 2007

3 Crossfield Chambers, Gladbeck Way, Enfield, EN2 7HF
Telephone 020 8370 3688, Fax 020 8363 1155
Email info@nationalpetmonth.org.uk
www.nationalpetmonth.org.uk

Kirkinriola School received:

- A visit from an expert on pet care from the new Ballymena Dogs Trust Centre
- A visit from Des Thompson MRCVS
- A set of Frog the Dog books signed by the author Helen McGlasson for the school library:
www.frogthedog.com
- A copy of the brand new 'The Pet Keeper Fairies' series – the fifth in the Rainbow Magic series of books, by Daisy Miller illustrated by Georgie Ripper (with many thanks to publishers Orchard books
www.hachettechildrens.co.uk
- A copy of the book 'Willi Whizkas Tall Tales and Lost Lives!' by Paws and Claws. Willi Whizkas is an ordinary cat who shares his home with two humans. Written in the 'first cat' the book views life from a cat's perspective. Life for Willi is sometimes dull; at times he has great fun. He may be a naughty cat, but he is loveable just the same. For more information contact Martin Ellis, Zymurgy Publishing, Hoult's Estate, Walker Road, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE6 2HL, email williwhizkas@btopenworld.com
- A visit from Michael Bellingham, PFMA and National Pet Week vice-chairman
- Loads of National Pet Week goodies!